COMMANDER COLLEGE 201

February 25-27, 2011
CAMP ARNES

Vision for Commander College 201

You've already had a taste of Commander College! It's time to take flight and sharpen your skills as an advocate, shepherd, administrator, communicator and leader. As a commander you have an ongoing responsibility to stay focused on Christ and live out His Word to a generation who desperately need Him. We want to equip you to do just that!

Just as in Commander College 101, 201 features fellowship with commanders from around the country and teaching from the Awana Training Team. Don't miss the opportunity to reconnect with commanders you may have previously met and new ones who share your same passion for Awana and kids' ministry.

We know that you work hard to impact kids for the kingdom.

Our goal is to thoroughly prepare you to excel in your role within the church and capture the benefits of a well-run Awana program.

Snapshot of Training Weekend

February 25-27, 2011

Friday — Soar as a commander as you take a deeper look at what motivates you in your role as a commander. Also, discover your unique leadership style and your preferences of ministry leadership.

Saturday — Our flight continues with an in-depth look at how you can communicate like Jesus. We will also look at how to assess, equip and track elements of Awana that are most important to the salvation and discipleship of children and youth while further honing your skills in leading others through interactive participation.

Sunday — Join the college leadership, Awana missionaries and your fellow commanders in worship, our final commissioning session and lunch. Head for your departing gate equipped with inspiration, ideas and a new team of support praying for you as a commander.

Visit www.awana.org/commandercollege for the complete schedule.
