

Skelton Scroll

John & Mary Skelton Awana Missionary Newsletter
Late Winter 2011 Volume 18, Number 1

SCROLL REVIVED

Eleven years after what was thought to be the retirement of the Skelton Scroll, it is again active.

At the end of 2010, Harvey and Lil Fehr stepped down from their BC missionary ministry. We then responded to the Lord's call for an interim term as the BC Awana Missionaries. Awana welcomes prospective candidates for Canada provincial areas to contact them at: www.awanacanada.ca.

It is our privilege to again share notes on a few of the current missionary activities!

We trust that you will be well informed so that you can pray more effectively for our ministry.

CHURCHES INQUIRING

In the first week of March, two more churches have inquired about starting Awana Clubs. Leaders for some newer clubs are being trained in April.

More training is being planned for this summer in preparation for fall startups. Praise the Lord for continued growth of Awana with the able assistance of our BC Awana ministry team.

2011 BIBLE QUIZZES

February 12th was an exciting day for Vancouver Island Awana clubbers. First Baptist Church of Nanaimo hosted the event. Each participating church entered teams that gave evidence of much study in several age group categories.

The 25th annual Lower Mainland Quiz Meet got underway with a packed house at Ebenezer Baptist in Vancouver on February 19th.

Fifty-six fired up teams exhibited Bible knowledge in quoting verses and answering multiple-choice and speed quiz questions taken from their Awana handbook studies. We trust that each clubber will apply precious Bible truths to their daily lives.

SPARKS-A-RAMA AND AWANAGAMES™ JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Sparks-A-Rama and AwanaGames first came to the British Columbia Lower Mainland in April of 1985. For most of the past 26 years, they have been exciting spring events.

The annual tradition is expected to continue this year on April 9th at Langley Christian High School. Sparks-A-Rama begins at 10:30 a.m. and AwanaGames™ gets underway at 1:30 p.m. We hope to see a cheerful, cheering crowd.

PREPARATION UNDERWAY FOR SUMMER AND FALL

BC Awana Scholarship Camp July 23-30, 2011

Just 16 weeks away at the time of this writing. Application forms for campers and counselors are online at www.awanacanada.ca or they are available from us by phoning 604-837-1472 or by emailing us at j.skelton@awanacanada.ca.

BC Awana Ministry Conference Saturday, October 22, 2011

Keynote speaker is Larry Fowler, Exec. Director of Global Training at Awana Clubs International. Fifty to 60 workshops are being planned. We are gearing up for as many as 600 club and church ministry workers to attend from British Columbia and the U.S. Northwest.

