- With several workshops available at the same time, how do you decide where to go? Commanders can assign various leaders to attend different workshops and take notes. At your next leaders' meeting, share with one another what you have learned. All workshops are open to anyone.
- Coffee and Tea will be on. Come early and pick up your conference packet. We encourage you to attend all sessions for your maximum benefit. Book tables will be closed during workshops.
- A special award plaque will be presented to any Awana club that has 70% or more of their leaders in attendance. Remember your pastor counts as three.
- A special conference pin will be available at the close of the conference to all who stay all day and turn in an evaluation form.
