

Romans 8-28-39 (NIV)

28 And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

Completed date: _____

29 For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

Completed date: _____

30 And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

Completed date: _____

31 What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Completed date: _____

32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all— how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Completed date: _____

33 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies.

Romans 8-28-39 (NIV)

34 Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Completed date: _____

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?

Completed date: _____

36 As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

Completed date: _____

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

Completed date: _____

38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

Completed date: _____

39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
