Q: Why did God give us the Bible?

A: God gave us the Bible so we can know that He (the Lord) is the one and only true God.

Jeremiah 10:10a
But the LORD is the true God, He is the living God.

Clue

The "a" behind the 10 means that this is the first part of the verse.

“What are you doing?” Leah asked Arthur. He was sitting on the porch steps, with his dad’s laptop.

“My solar system report,” Arthur told her. “Did you know all the planets except earth were named for Roman gods or goddesses?”

“Never really thought about it,”

Leah shrugged. “But I get sad even thinking about the people who worship all those idol-gods and don’t understand that our God is the only TRUE God.”

“I have an idea,” Arthur said. “Let’s ask the kids what the word ‘true’ means.”

OK clubbers, help Arthur and Leah. Figure out the words and write them in the blanks.

Who is the Lord Jesus?

The Lord Jesus "showed" He is the Son of God.

John 21:25
Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Matthew 11:5
The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.

Leah and Arthur were on a school field trip to the planetarium. "Those stars are light years away," Arthur said.

"Do you know that if a rocket shot through the air at a speed of five miles per second, it would take 37,200 years for it to go just one light year?" Erik said. (Sometimes he knew other stuff besides BIG words.)

"That's exactly why John 21:25 is one of my favorite verses," Arthur said. "The Bible tells us about so many miracles, but can you imagine how many miracles the Bible doesn't tell us about? Just writing about CREATION would take books and books and books and ..."

Find a story in Matthew, Mark, Luke or John that talks about one of the miracles of the Lord Jesus. Read the story. Which story did you read?
